OUR VISION

In response to the notable expansion of Rose Bouquet and the substantial surge in demand for our products, we are actively seeking a dedicated space to further enhance our operations. With an unwavering commitment to establishing Rose Bouquet as an authentic Arab brand that competes seamlessly on the global stage, we are currently in search of a space ranging from 1,300 to 2,000 square feet.

This strategic move aligns with our vision to provide an elevated experience for our clientele and solidify our position as a prominent player in the international market. As we embark on this next phase of growth, we remain dedicated to delivering excellence in every aspect of our brand.

Rose Bouquet Company traces its roots back to its founder, the distinguished Damascus merchant, Nadeem Fayoumi.

The company's legacy, characterized by a commitment to excellence and innovation, has been seamlessly continued and developed under the visionary leadership of his sons, Nabil Fayoumi and Firas Fayoumi.

This generational transition reflects a seamless blend of heritage and forward-thinking, ensuring that the essence of Rose Bouquet is not only preserved but also advanced to new heights under the capable hands of its successive leaders. The Fayoumi family's dedication has played a pivotal role in shaping the Brand Rose Bouquet into a symbol of quality, craftsmanship, and enduring success in the industry.
